But Congressman Is Not and Does Not Expect To Be Candidate For Governor.

"I am not and do not expect to be a candidate for Governor."
With this terse comment Congressman Wallace H. White, Jr., set at rest the minds of politicians and set aside the report which political gossip was responsible for. The congressman arrived home Saturday for a brief stay. In referring to the report that he was to be a candidate for gubernatorial honors, Congressman White said: "I am not unimpressed by the compliment implied in such a suggestion, but I am not and do not expect to be a candidate for this position."

ROCKLAND SCHOONER LOST

Hugh de Payens, Owned by I. L. Snow Co., Wrecked in Southern Hurricane. Crew Saved.

The loss of the fine Rockland schooner Hugh de Payens during the recent severe storm in Southern waters was the unwelcome news which was received in this city Wednesday afternoon. The information came to the I. L. Snow Co., which owned the vessel, in the form of a wireless message sent from the steamship Olinda via Key West, Fla. The message read:

"Hugh de Payens wrecked in hurricane. Crew taken off by Cuban steamer ship Olinda. Latitude 23°33' north; longitude, 79°27' west. Capt. A. B. Norton."

The schooner was bound from Mobile for Ponce, P. R., with a cargo of lumber. The storm was one of the most severe that has swept the southern coast in many years. The toll of life and property being very large.

The Hugh de Payens was launched on St. John's Day 1910, and was named in honor of the Melrose Knights Templar Commandery which was in the city on a pilgrimage. It registered 45 gross tons and carried six men. The owners had only partial insurance.

On the same day the I. L. Snow Co. received word that the schooner Helvetia had arrived at Delaware Breakwater from Jamaica, with logwood from Philadelphia.

Alton H. Blackinton, who was recently released from the Naval service, is now employed in the Civil Service Department, engaged just at present in making official photographs of Maine Coast Guard stations when he happened upon the schooner Helvetia. Mr. Blackinton has been a visitor in this city during the week and tells of some exciting incidents which he witnessed during the recent storm disturbances. He was standing within a few rods of the man who was shot dead.

THORNDIKE & HIX DEAL

Well Known Firm Sells Coal, Wood and Ice Business To Rockland Coal Co., Headed by William Sanson.

Big business deals have come to be an almost everyday happening in Rockland, but this will not serve to dim the interest which everybody will feel in the announcement that the well known firm of Thorndike & Hix has disposed of its coal, wood and ice department.

This important business has been taken over by a new corporation known as the Rockland Coal Co., the officers of which are: President and general manager, William Sanson; treasurer, F. A. Thorndike; clerk, Miss Florence I. Jordan. With this personnel it is almost superfluous to add that the business will be conducted in the same satisfactory manner that has helped achieve popularity and prosperity for the firm of Thorndike & Hix.

Mr. Sanson has been with that firm 20 years. He is now manager of the department which he now heads. He joined the staff young and ambitious, and promotion came early when his aptitude for the business and desire to give the public good service manifested themselves. Miss Jordan, the corporation clerk, has been with the concern more than 10 years, and is also thoroughly familiar with this branch of the business.

The department operates eight single teams, one two-horse team and one truck, and is well equipped to serve the public.

Deserting Boston Policemen Will Be "Found Wanting" Their Old Job.

Editor of The Courier-Gazette:—Your kind words about my visit to the old home town, you spoke about my being "known to the police." You may have noted that shortly after my return to Boston the police started something. This was entirely without my consent I assure you. Being hit by the soft side of a brick when expelled from the hand of a rioter has no joys for me. Neither does being prodded by a bayonet in the hands of a lusty militiaman. I attended to my regular business in the day times, which takes me through the district where the rioting occurred, and in the evening I went home.

You have also noticed that we have a police commissioner who has a spine—also a chief executive of the Commonwealth who is possessed of the same bony attribute. Our authorities seem unwilling to take orders from Mr. Gompers. Thank God for that. In Washington it seems to be the order of the day to do so.

Fine work, isn't it, when the majority of a police force desert their posts. All honor to the men who stood by and performed their duty.

Just notice how the affair cuts the high cost of living. This morning's Herald says it is costing the City of Boston $16,000 daily for the State Guard. Thirty days would mean half a million dollars added to the taxes. These men are all from civil life and that means decreased production. Notice the cost of living drop! Oh, for a man on the job where needed.

You can read all about the riot in the papers. The people are not hysterical. They are going about their business calmly and awaiting developments. It looks as though the decision against the deserters will be: "Thou art weighed in the balances and art found wanting." Boze, Boston, Sept. 13.

A CREDIT BUREAU

Rockland Merchants To Put In Operation a Modern System of Business Protection.

A credit bureau will be established in Rockland, with headquarters at the Merchants' Association rooms, according to plans formulated by a representative of the Merchants' Credit Co., of Brockton, Mass., who has been in this city for several days interviewing the merchants and making preliminary arrangements. The project has received the endorsement of leading merchants and business men and will be put into effect in the near future.

Through this bureau the merchants who are asked to give credit may learn the standing of the persons seeking to establish a charge account and know something about the experience of other local merchants in dealing with persons in question. The object of the bureau is to protect the merchants from being misled by persons who do not pay their bills, and to furnish those whose credit is excellent, with a recommendation to the different storekeepers.

A credit system is a benefit to both debtor and creditor. The man who pays his bills will be known as such by the entire business community, and will thus be in a position to obtain credit accommodations wherever he wants. But the man who pays three or four merchants and uses them as a reference to buy goods on credit when there are a dozen or more merchants whom he does not pay will find it difficult to obtain credit anywhere.

Credit accommodations are an essential factor in every community. The public, however, demands a great convenience from the merchant when it asks for credit and the retail merchant who gives out his goods to the consumer should be protected in the same manner that Dun and Bradstreet protect the wholesaler. It is by having some information about the pay habits of his customer. This service the retailer obtains from the credit bureau. A reliable credit bureau not only protects the merchant from the man who does not intend to pay his bills, but also stimulates payment by those who are reliable but slow in settling accounts and brings cash into the merchant's tills instead of leaving it outstanding on his books.

FOR PARTY ADVANTAGE

Democrats In the Senate Are Jeopardizing With the Peace Treaty.

Editor of The Courier-Gazette:—The Democrats in the Senate are trying every subterfuge they can think of to get favorable action on the Peace Treaty. My belief is that the so-called treaty, loaded as it is with a multitude of matters extraneous to a conclusion of a just peace with Germany, is a shrewd political scheme for Democratic party advantage. It is theoretical, illogical, contradictory, unconstitutional, un-American and unworkable. The Democratic party is inclining our government toward anarchy. The President is an inexperienced idiot, without a scrap of knowledge of the nature of military matters or the practical limitations of international affairs. He reverses his stand (or rather his tenets, as he never takes a stand) so rapidly and often that even his supporters are embarrassed before the public. He has no respect for precedent, in fact he says, "We cannot go back to the old order of which we are ashamed." No real America is ashamed of our American past, nor the men who made it. Personally I feel ashamed of the way we are now violating the confidence and respect of certain countries through presidential policies, in such great contrast to the policies of our great presidents which gained for us the respect of the world. From a Soldier.

Corporal Walter F. Britto, who has been in the Army service since May 29, 1918, is back at his Rockland home, with his discharge papers, and revealing in the luxury of familiar scenes and home cooking. Mr. Britto trained at Camp Devens, and went overseas with the 388 Machine Gun Battalion. Since the war's close he has been with the Third Army of Occupation in the quartermaster's corps, stationed at Coblenz. His facile pen was responsible for some of the most interesting war time letters which appeared in The Courier-Gazette. He came home on the transport Malolika, which docked at Harboken. After a brief stay at Camp Merritt, he came on to Camp Devens, where he received his discharge. He does not tip the scales quite as readily as he used to, but is the picture of health.

Writing to The Courier-Gazette from his new home in Needham, Mass., former Superintendent of Schools West says: "We are happy here in our new location, although we miss our good Rockland friends. I am much interested in Rockland's business boom and hope that it will mean great improvement to the schools."

TWICE-A-WEEK

Rockland, Maine, Sept. 19, 1919.
 Personal appeared Neil S. Perry, who on oath declared: That he is a resident in the office of the Rockland Publishing Co., and that of the issue of the Courier-Gazette of Sept. 1919, there was printed a total of 6,002 copies. Before me,
 J. W. CROCKER,
 Notary Public.

Women's war savings organizations, representing Knox, Lincoln and Waldo counties were addressed at a Tuesday afternoon meeting in the First Baptist Church by Mrs. Grace A. Wing, the State manager, and Mrs. Myra B. Lord of Boston, who is at the head of the New England branch. Mrs. Annie F. Simmons of this city, who is so capably officiating as field secretary, called the meeting to order. The government's desires in the way of inculcating thrift among the people were outlined by Mrs. Lord. The impression on her audience that the prime object is to save something against a rainy day, either through War Savings Stamps, Liberty Bonds or bank deposits. Mrs. Wing described the practical manner in which the work is being carried on in this State. The object a member, who shall be known as organization in each town is asked to see the thrift council chairman. This chairman is asked to disburse literature to organizations, in order that they may be introduced with the programs of the meetings; to have stamps always on sale at meetings; and to assist the town chairman in her duties. Leroy D. Perry of the Post Office force gave interesting figures regarding the sale of thrift stamps in this city during the years 1918 and 1919. He has on hand plenty of stamps and 800 certificates into which stamps may be converted.

Mayor Wescott of Belfast was a visitor in the city Tuesday. There is an executive who did not have to worry a great deal about the result of the municipal elections, as he was the solitary candidate, nominated on a citizens' ticket with the endorsement of both parties. Belfast's experience is a refutation of the popular belief hereabouts that a citizens' ticket is impracticable. Mayor Wescott appears to be making a success of it.

At the meeting of the county commissioners Tuesday verbal complaints were made by residents of South Thomaston and St. George as to the condition of the stage road between Rockland and Clark Island in South Thomaston and also as to a short piece of road in St. George. The South Thomaston selectmen promised to put the stage road in better condition.

PARK THEATRE

Suppose you found yourself in a house the windows of which were heavily barred and heavily curtained, and never opened to admit the sunlight. Wouldn't you think you were in an insane asylum? In such a house Evelyn Nesbit finds herself virtually a prisoner in "My Little Sister," the William Fox photoplay which is the feature attraction for today and tomorrow. The booking for Monday and Tuesday is "Upstairs and Down," with Olive Thomas starring. "He ruined my young life and took advantage of my innocence," she murmured to her sister when this same sister had told her of being engaged to him. But she lied. "The Fear Woman" will be presented for the midweek attraction, with Pauline Frederick starring—adv.

MRS. H. PRICE WEBBER

The death at Painesburg, Nova Scotia, on Sept. 8 of Mrs. H. Price Webber, whose stage name was Edwina Gray, will bring to older readers recollection of theatrical days when that actress, a young girl, was having the beginnings of her professional career on the circuit in which Rockland was included and where she often appeared. She married Mr. Webber in 1875 and remained almost continuously in professional life until about a year ago. She played many parts, keeping alive those sterling plays that have had a place in the affections of succeeding generations—"East Lynne," "Ten Nights in a Bar-room," "Fanchon, the Cricketer," "Loth, the Forsaken," etc.—with versatility and conscientious adherence to traditions brought out of the period when actors were trained in the stock company. She was a lady of fine character, a member of the Episcopal church, religious and charitable and greatly beloved by a wide circle of friends, not only in Augusta, her home, but throughout the various towns of New England and the Provinces, where at the head of the Boston Comedy Co. of which Mr. Webber was manager, she had played with great success through many years. Mr. and Mrs. Webber's professional career has been marked by the highest standards of honor. The break in their long sustained and happy relations as husband and wife falls with much force upon Mr. Webber, who has the deep sympathy of hosts of friends.

THE BRADBURY CASE

Insurance Company's Side Is Now Being Heard in Supreme Court—Incendiarism Alleged.

The defense in the case of Harry B. Bradbury vs. the Rhode Island Insurance Co. was reached last night, just before adjournment, and as outlined in Mr. Withee's opening will be based on three points—namely, that there was arbitration; that the value of the insured property was not there; and that the plaintiff, himself, was a contributing cause toward the fire which destroyed his store on the morning of Dec. 30, 1917. The defense has many witnesses and the case will probably outlast the week. In any event the first jury has been discharged until 10 o'clock next Monday morning.

The case was briefly outlined in our Tuesday issue. The evidence of Mr. Bradbury, and of Abraham Sandler, a wholesale dealer from whom he purchased goods, was to the effect that the stock was worth about $7000 at the time of the fire. Fred Redman, who had a shoe repairing shop at the rear of the store estimated the stock at $6000 when he saw it in July. This opinion was shared by W. A. Rich, who was familiar in a general way with the store. Fred Wilson testified to an inventory which Mr. Bradbury and he had made Oct. 5. They went over the stock in detail and verified their figures, which showed a total of $6000.

Arthur L. Orne, whose insurance on the Bradbury stock was in the form of renewals, said he found the store "full of goods," and commented on the fact. E. C. Moran had renewed insurance on the stock. In October he wrote another policy, which business he solicited, and after doing so told Mr. Bradbury that he still lacked enough insurance to bring him up to the 80 percent limit. The plaintiff said he would put on another policy which he did Oct. 11. Dec. 24 a policy for $1000 was renewed by Mr. Moran, who said that the store was crowded with goods.

The plaintiff's claim with reference to the referee's award, as brought out in the testimony, was to the effect that it was fraudulent. According to the Bradbury side of the story the referee's award in Attorney Johnson's office, with Attorney Littlefield also present. Evidence was placed before the referee to show a stock valuation of $7000, and with the inventory were the bank book, check book, auditor's report covering that period. When supper time came there was an understanding that the referee's hearing would be continued and Mr. Wilson was ordered to appear before it. The witnesses showed up next morning, but the referee did not, and Attorney Johnson's efforts failed to get them together. Thomas A. Hunt of Camden, who was one of the referees, but who failed to sign the report, testified that the other referees had expressed a disbelief in the Bradbury claims, and refused to consider the inventory they believed, according to Mr. Hunt's understanding of the situation, that Mr. Bradbury's stock at the beginning was worth only $2000.

The Chapin Class will hold a cooked food sale at W. O. Hewett's store Saturday afternoon, Sept. 20. 74-75

LIVELY FISTIC ARGUMENTS

Young Dube Proved a Match for Freddie Madden—Richlin Shaded Mason—And Seavey Astonishes the Natives.

The local fight fans saw a hot scrap at the Training Station last night, when Young Richlin of Bangor faced Kid Mason of Rockland in the semi-finals. Neither lad had yet met his master in the ring, and this battle was to be the survival of the fittest. Just how it would have terminated in a "double-six" is hard to say, but the end of the rounds for which it was scheduled found both men comparatively fresh, and neither having any decided advantage.

A "newspaper decision," which was based in this instance mainly upon the opinion of two prominent sportsmen not connected with the press, is that Richlin outpointed his antagonist. Those who saw it the other way say that Mason did most of the leading, or rushing. But Mason always found his man at it, and he is pretty generally admitted that Richlin landed a majority of the blows. And it is universally admitted that both boys are fast, clever and game.

Young Nadeau of Lewiston, who was introduced as willing to meet any 135-pound man in the country, refereed the Richlin-Mason bout, while Charles N. Cohen was the third man in the ring while the main bout was being fought by Freddie Madden of Boston and Young Dube of Lewiston. "Doc" Almy, the well known Boston sporting authority, made no mistake when he told the sporting editor of The Courier-Gazette that Madden is "a mighty good boy." The Boston lad for two or three rounds gave the fastest exhibition of boxing and cleverest display of ring generalship that Rockland has seen in many a long day, but the Maine champion recovered from his surprise at the end of that time, and was doing practically all the leading during the remainder of the battle. The Boston boy was criticised quite a bit for hitting low, but on the whole it was a clean fight, and nobody was ashamed of the Pine Tree lad when it was over.

Frank Seavey, who established a record in one of the early fights for making a speedy exit through the ropes, got back into the white hope class last night, when he knocked out Young Perry of Gloucester in the third round. Perry is said to be the champion fish-splitter at the East Coast Terminal, but his knife was dull when he tackled Seavey. The latter has challenged Richlin, or Jess Willard, we disremember which.

The Black Circuit opens its new theatre in Danversville tomorrow.

Edward W. Barber, who is employed at the Maine Central freight office, is leaving his vacation.

The farewell reception to Rev. M. E. Thompson takes place in the Methodist vestry this evening, from 8 to 10. The public is invited.

The Woman's Association of the Congregational church will hold a meeting in the vestry next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Arvid L. Hichon is out with the Bowdoin football squad, and will doubtless be found at quarterback in the interscholastic games.

There is a law against taking possession of electric light poles. The Knox County Electric Co. gives notice that it intends to enforce the law.

The strike of the East Coast Fishermen's company's employees was of brief duration. The men resumed work Wednesday morning and the incident is closed.

Parker F. Norcross, local agent of the Bath Motor Mart, has sold a Buick roadster to Miss Gwendolyn Wolfe, and a Buick touring car to Mrs. F. E. Gattrell. Mr. Norcross is driving a Scion-400 Six of the 1910 model.

Miss Phyllis Tolman was greatly surprised Tuesday when she read in the Courier-Gazette that she was on her way to Siberia. "Was merely a slip of the pen," Miss Eunice Tolman, the member of the family who is making the long journey.

The report that the night train was to be withdrawn when the winter schedule goes into effect, Sept. 28, proves largely to have been an error, which arose from the failure of the Maine Central's circular to make any mention of that train. Under the new schedule passenger trains will leave Rockland at 7:40 a. m., 1:20 and 4:35 p. m., and will arrive at 11 a. m. and 5 and 9 p. m. The official schedule will be printed shortly.

Recent inquiry was made by a Courier-Gazette reader as to why Charles Chaplin is not visiting Rockland more frequently. The explanation from the office of the Maine Theatres, Inc. is very conclusive. He famous comedian has appeared in but three theatres this year, and two of them—"A Dog's Life" and "Shoulder Arms," have already been shown at Park Theatre. The third is called "Sunny Side" and is booked for Oct. 8 and 9 at Park Theatre.

The Eastern Steamship Lines, Inc. is having in its own preferred stock and will shortly have it all in the strong box and then it is probable it will be cancelled. This company is getting on its feet again thanks to the fact that the government took over a lot of its steamers and operated them, or else bought them outright for a big figure. The has enabled the Eastern to run somewhere near the balance mark in its finances for the first time in years, and gradually the company is coming back to the right place. It is probable that a reorganization will come about in due time and then the company will start in all over new again. Just what will become of some of the added lines is not known, but it is hinted that the whole thing will be "unscrambled" and new combinations made up in a new way.—Portland Press.

A correspondent writes to The Courier-Gazette: "I have been very busy during the last Sunday afternoon, and I wish many others could have heard it. If Mr. Allen would consent to have it printed so that many could read it, I am sure it would do good to all."

C. P. Tarr of Bath has leased the upper story of Dr. E. W. Gaudin's building at the corner of Main and Pleasant streets, and will open a hotel and restaurant as soon as repairs and improvements have been made. Mr. Tarr will also open a restaurant at 3 Pleasant street in what was formerly a coal office for Thorndike & Hix.

The High School boys began football practice this week, and a stocky squad of eleven is being trained by the preliminary instructions. Fifteen men are out for the team this fall, and it is said that the average eight is about 165 pounds. Oliver Hamlin, late of the 56th Pioneer Infantry, is captain of the team and Edwin Scoville is manager. Rockland High is to play its first game Oct. 4, against Gardner High, on the Broadway ground. The full schedule and some "dope" will appear in our Tuesday issue.

An interesting event at the Melvin Building Wednesday morning was the presentation of a large portrait of the late Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens, which will be hung in the corridor of that schoolhouse. The presentation speech was made by Miss Anna A. Gordon, who succeeded Mrs. Stevens as national president of the W. C. T. U., and the response was by Sup't. H. C. Hall. The school children gathered in the hallway and on the stairways made an inspiring picture, and their singing was so well done as to fully merit the praise it received from the distinguished visitors.

Harry A. Mother of the Mother greenhouse is wearing an unusually brilliant smile these days, assuming his many friends that there never was another girl like Irma Hilda Mother, who arrived at his home last Saturday.

Examinations will be held at the Rockland postoffice Oct. 11 for 4th class postmaster at Owl's Head. Application blanks and instructions can be obtained at the Owl's Head office or by application to the United States Civil Service commission at Washington.

Robert T. Collins, who recently resigned his position as auditor of the Rockland & Rockport Line Co., enters upon his new duties as general manager of the Rockland Building Co. The latter corporation will have its office in Union block, corner of Main street and Tillson avenue, over Scott's shoe store.

Jewett's Jolly Jazz Orchestra from Bath, that played at the Arcade Wednesday, was the best that has ever played in this part of the State. The singing and dancing of Mr. Jewett is alone worth the price of admission. This same orchestra of eleven pieces will be at the Arcade next Wednesday night, Sept. 24.

Next Tuesday evening there will be a Christian Endeavor Trolley League social at the First Baptist Church with a young folks' supper served by the ladies of the church, the speakers of the evening being the officers of the Middle Christian Endeavor Society. All the young people of the city interested in religious things are cordially invited to supper at 5:30 and the service at 7:30. The High School orchestra will furnish music. A good supper and a good time are assured all who attend.

The Elks have a meeting Monday night.

The old favorite Temple hall assemblies start Monday night with Marshall's music. Dance from 8 to 11.

The store vacated by V. E. Studley has been leased by Abraham Levy, who will move his clothing business there.

Barrett's Orchestra No. 1—the first drive that played at the Arcade Sept. 6 will be here again Saturday night. Popular prices.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Wilcox of New Bedford, Mass., have been guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Beverage. Mrs. Beverage and Mrs. Wilcox were schoolmates at Farmington Normal.

Nelson C. Carr is moving into his new house on Hill street. Bert Wardwell the previous tenant has moved to Granite street in the Tibbitts' house, and Henry Ladd is moving to the French house which Mr. Carr vacated.

Millard F. Weymouth, who has been in the employ of St. Clair & Allen for a number of years, has entered partnership with John S. Rickett 3d, and the firm will engage in the manufacture of confectionery, along with the fruit and confectionery business. Mr. Weymouth is an expert candy maker.

Rockland Lodge A. O. U. W. initiated a large class of candidates. Wednesday night and acted upon its applications. There was a large attendance. S. E. Well officiated as master workman. State Deputy Larrabee, Mr. Well, Willard Chapin and Mrs. Huntley made brief speeches, after which the Lodge adjourned. A son from the antechamber of boxes of food which had been brought by the sisters. This money will be used for the aid of sick members. The Lodge will have a dance in Golden Cross hall next Thursday night.

Although many changes are taking place in the personnel of the U. S. Shipping Board these days no information has yet been given that the free Navigation School is to be suspended. Nine graduates went up for examination this week. Those who went to Portland were Benjamin Wiggin of South Thomaston, Ralph Scott of Rockland, Leslie Dyer of Vinthaven, Almond Hall of St. George and Frank Clark of Portland. Those who went to Bangor were Harry Abbe and Lewis Abbe of Bangor, Linwood Perkins and Hollis Stover of Bluehill. The school still has 15 students and about 18 more applications have been approved.

You remember that motto: "There's always something doing at Union Fair." Well, next week is Union Fair week, and President Thurston has been notified that a large consignment of fair weather horses shipped to him. The races will take place Wednesday and Thursday, and already there is a big field of entries. Last year's races were far and away the best that have ever been held at Union Fair, and the crowd will be glad to know that some of the fine horses will start. There'll surely be something doing when the speedy ones get out on the stretch. It has been a great fruit year, and the Union exhibit is always one of the best. As to that midday, oh boy!

EMPIRE THEATRE

It is hard to believe that any wealthy woman can grow tired of silks, satins and luxuries. But Patience Hilton, pride of the "four hundred," grew so bored with her life of ease that she decided to give poverty a trial. Al though she had to wreck the family fortune to accomplish her ends, she did not hesitate, and turned burglar to do it. The experiences of the impoverished family form the theme of a new play, "The Exquisite Thief," which is shown today and tomorrow.

A crook picture which takes an unique turn is offered for Monday and Tuesday under the title of "The Exquisite Thief." As Blue Jean Billie, Priscilla Dean, one of the cleverest of the crooks that ever baffled a police department. She attends a reception with the idea of stealing the jewels and makes off with the bridegroom as well! Rather startling. And then—but all the rest remains for the picture itself to tell.

FORMER MAYOR INDORSES TANLAC

"You Will Hardly Know Me When We Meet Again; For I Am Getting Well," He Writes Friend.

One of the latest additions to the list of leaders of thought and action who have come forward with their unqualified endorsement of Tanlac is the name of Hon. Frank V. Evans, former Mayor of Birmingham, Ala., Ex-Officer of Public Accounts of Alabama, and at one time editor of one of the South's greatest newspapers, The Birmingham Age-Herald.

Writing to a personal friend in Atlanta Mr. Evans says:

"By the way, you will hardly know me when we meet again, because I am getting so well and strong again. As I told you while in Atlanta last month, I have been suffering a long time with gastritis, as the doctors call it—really a disordered stomach with consequent constipation, pains in the shoulders, headache, belching, heartburn, loss of appetite, loss of sleep, and fainting spells. For weeks I could not sleep on my back. One week ago, upon recommendation of friends who had tried the medicine, I purchased one bottle of Tanlac and began taking it. Since my second dose I have suffered none of these troubles to which I refer, and believe I am going to get perfectly well and strong again. Won't that be wonderful at my age? Well, certain it is that Tanlac is a wonderful medicine, and you know I am not given to 'pulling' mere experiments and untried orthodox as to materia medica. I shall continue the treatment with perfect confidence in the final results."

Tanlac is sold in Rockland by Corner Drug Store, and in Thomaston by Whitney & Brackett—adv.

SEPTEMBER
September, with your cooling breeze,
I'd like you if you could but stay,
And help the older winds that come
From entering this poor house of clay.

If you were not a harpinger
Of cold and snow, at any price,
I'd like you here, you say you're here,
I dread so much your swift demise.

Your advent brings to my mind gold
So bright and beautiful to see,
You smile and laugh, but long thoughts
Of death, decay and misery.

I'd like you of your own true self
Could you but linger here for aye,
And humbly send my humblest plea
I'd pray you not to go away.

Dear September, J. O. C. M.

WILLIAM G. MOODY DEAD

Ran First Locomotive Into Rockland and Was in Livery Business Here 45 Years.

William G. Moody, who ran the first locomotive into Rockland and was later in the livery business here, died in Augusta last week. Funeral services were held Monday.

Mr. Moody was born Jan. 20, 1855, at Freeport, Me. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Converse Moody and received his education in the common schools at Freeport and Farmington. At the age of 20 he was given his time and went to Boston where he was employed as car-penter at the East Boston ferry. After remaining in Boston for two or three years he went to Farmington, where he drove a stage from Farmington to Phillips. For several years he was stage driver, his routes being from Farmington to Augusta, Augusta to Belfast and Augusta to Rockland. He became an expert in the route from Augusta to Rockland, being in partnership with Doty Richards of Augusta.

He left staging and went into the employ of the Portland & Kennebec Railroad as engineer and in 1889 he ran the first locomotive into Rockland on the Knox & Lincoln Railroad. After leaving this occupation he bought out a livery business in this city and conducted the business for 15 years. He then sold out and went to Augusta. He continued in the livery business. When his stable burned some 25 years ago he conducted his livery business at a stable situated where the Colonial theatre now stands. He was in business in Augusta about 12 years, retiring in 1900. For 31 years he made his home in Augusta.

This was their third summer here and they have many friends in this place who are sorry to have them leave. We are glad to know they bought the cottage where they have been spending their summers of R. E. Dunn, which means that we will have them with us another season.

This place has again been saddened by the death of another of our young men. Hiram Cazalbi, aged 20, was instantly killed Sept. 8 when he slipped and fell from a loaded truck which he was driving while at work at Caribou where he had been employed the past two years. He was the son of Mrs. Della Cazalbi. His father died about seven years ago. Of a most cheerful and obliging nature he made friends with old and young. He leaves besides a sorrowing mother, a wife and seven-year old daughter, and one brother, George, to whom much sympathy is extended. Funeral services were held at the grave Sunday, Rev. Ernest Small of Friendship officiating. Rev. Albert Davis, A. W. Orne and Mrs. Grace Maloney sang two selections. There were many beautiful flowers, tokens of love from friends.

IN MISERY FOR YEARS

Mrs. Courtney Tells How She Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Oskaloosa, Iowa.—"For years I was simply in misery from a weakness and awful pains--and nothing seemed to do me any good. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and got relief right away. I can certainly recommend this valuable medicine to other women who suffer, for it has done such good work for me and I know it will help others if they will give it a fair trial."

Mrs. LIZZIE COURTNEY, 108 8th Ave., West, Oskaloosa, Iowa.

Why will women drag along from day to day, year in and year out, suffering such misery as did Mrs. Courtney, when such letters as this are continually being published. Every woman who suffers from displacements, irregularities, inflammation, ulceration, backache, nervousness, or who is passing through the Change of Life should give this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. For special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of its long experience is at your service.

THE HOME INDUSTRY

Brading Rugs is the most attractive and best paid form of home employment for women who want to turn the hours not required for their household duties into money.

Sixteen years ago, the President of Pinkham Associates Inc. conceived the idea of turning what had formerly been an article of no established value, Hand Braided Rugs, into a business. Women throughout the State who had formerly made rugs from the family rug rag, and for their own use only, became Associate Rug Makers and the product was placed on the market.

Today, there are several hundred Associate Rug Makers who are devoting all or part of their time to braiding rugs right in their own homes and receiving cash for the time they are giving to the work. Practically every community in the State has a rug maker who is a Pinkham Associate and she is earning good pay.

Many of the Associates who are on the pay roll today have been making Pinkham Braided Rugs continuously since 1912. Quite a few of them earn from six to seven hundred dollars a year and attend to their household duties as well.

Full particulars explaining how to become a Pinkham Associate Rug Maker may be had upon request by sending your name and address to Pinkham Associates, Inc., 217 Washington Ave., Portland, Maine--adv.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SALVATION

As Potent Today As In the Time of Abraham or Jesus.

At the Christian Science church on Broadway street last evening a good-sized audience listened to a lecture by John W. Dooley, G. S. B., member of the Board of Lectureship of the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston. The speaker was introduced by Mrs. Margaree Billings, who said--

"When Jesus was here on earth marking out the way for us, he said on one occasion, 'If ye continue in my word then are ye my disciples indeed and ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free.' Many thousands are rejoicing today in the abundance of life and happiness through having entertained an earnest desire to learn what that truth is, and it is to tell the world's peoples, in an authoritative way, something of the redemption and regenerating power of this teaching that these pictures are given. We have with us in Mr. Dooley one most able to speak on this subject."

Mr. Dooley spoke about an hour, saying in part:

What is the salvation which Christian Science offers? Christian Science is saving men from sin of every kind, from disease, from hate, from poverty, from death and indeed from every ill "to which flesh is heir." Are you in bondage to sin, to hate, to sorrow, to disease of any kind? Christian Science says that it is possible for you to be rid of these things at once. Are you overwhelmed by some so-called incurable disease that is destroying your happiness or the happiness of some member of your family? Christian Science declares that God never made that disease and that you do not therefore have to submit to it any longer. Are you labouring under deep sorrow? Christian Science says that there is infinite comfort for you in the understanding of Love's everpresence and that this understanding will entirely obliterate from your thought that sense of sorrow. In fact Christian Science insists that every condition that is unlike God and that claims to bind man through sin, disease, or death, is wholly abnormal and can and should be destroyed through the correct understanding of God and of God's law.

How then is this salvation to be attained and is it the salvation which the scriptures teach? Christian Science states emphatically that such salvation can only be attained by understanding what God is, what true existence is, the falsity of mortal existence and its inability to satisfy men's highest longings. This understanding must then be used practically in daily life.

Christ Jesus demonstrated for all time that spiritual understanding is sufficient for man's health, for his food, for his life, and to overcome all that claims to operate against his harmony as the son of God. He revealed to his followers an infallible rule, which he called "The Truth," that would deliver them from all evil thinking, or from the carnal mind, and its effect mortality.

He walked on the waters, thus disproving the so-called law of gravity; he healed the sick, thus shattering the idolatrous human belief that disease is a reality or any part of God's creation.

He regarded matter or material existence simply as a mistaken human belief that he overcame at all times and under all circumstances by the understanding of God's law or of spiritual existence. In fact Christ Jesus proved completely to mankind the infinite ability of good thinking or of spiritual understanding to overcome every material or mortal condition. Man, however, dwelling in a great measure, in the materialism of material sense, refused to accept these teachings because they exposed the nothingness of mortal existence, which to them seemed to be the only reality.

Mrs. Eddy during her whole life had shown marked spiritual proclivities and had been searching for years to understand God and His immutable law. When the truth about God and about existence appeared to her she was simultaneously raised from what seemed likely to be her death bed. Since then Mrs. Eddy's discovery which she named Christian Science, has been demonstrated in some measure by millions of people. It has delivered these people from sin from disease and in some cases from death, and has thus proved that the understanding of God's law, that is of spiritual existence, is as potent today as it was in the time of Abraham or Christ Jesus. By those listening for such a message the call again is heard "The spirit and the bride say, Come. And whosoever will let him take the water of life freely" (Rev. 22:17).

Not knocking Taste at all

Of course, we're not knocking taste. Chesterfields have taste, and it's some taste, too. But there's more than taste to Chesterfields.

They do what every smoker has always wished a cigarette would do. They go straight to your "smoke-spot". They satisfy. And Chesterfields alone can do this. Because the formula for this Chesterfield blend is the manufacturer's secret. Unlike a patent, it cannot be copied or even closely imitated. Only Chesterfields can truly say--

Why Mazola Saves Money in Cooking and Makes Food Better

In deep-fat frying, not a single drop of Mazola is wasted. Fry fish or onions, even garlic, in Mazola; strain and use it over and over again—even for cake making. Mazola absorbs no flavors or odors.

Use 1/4 to 1/3 less Mazola for shortening than butter or other shortenings.

No smoking—no soggy foods. Foods cooked with Mazola, or in which Mazola is used, are wholesome, healthful, easy to digest.

FREE Cooking made simple and economical when you consult the new 68-page Corn Products Cook Book. Recipes by experts. Attractive illustrations. Free—write for it today.

Mrs. Edna Anderson and little son Richard, are here from Belfast, visiting in Easter Hazel on Rankin street.
Mrs. Susie Smith came home from Tonant's Harbor for a short vacation, but it proved brief indeed, for employer finding her services indispensable, recalled her one week had passed to the great disappointment of friends and neighbors.
Last week's continuous rain made havoc in the aser beds, destroying nearly all which were in bloom at that time. If weather be favorable more will soon bloom though as they are from side branches, they will be somewhat smaller. Other flowers need not little injury.
I have heard it remarked several times and also noted in my own garden that corn is not as tall as usual this season. How do farmers folks account for this? Certainly the phosphate was the poorest I ever had, and there are plenty of brother farmers who will endorse this statement.
When Walter Renner went to his rain barrel last Saturday morning to get some soft water he found a half dozen living things there which nobody hereabout is able to name. He says they rained down from the sky and who can prove him wrong. They are about an inch long, with a long pointed tail nearly as long as the body. The whole beast, insect, worm, whatever it is, is of a grayish white color and the three which he brought me in a bottle of water lived and swam about until Sunday night. They seem to have rudimentary feet in two long rows on the under side. Who can name them?
